5. Planning Applications: To consider the following:

DC/22/3631/LBC Listed Building Consent - Alterations to approved scheme DC/18/1069/FUL | 8 Quay Street Halesworth - The Committee had no objections to this application.

DC/22/3630/FUL Retrospective Application - Alterations to approved scheme DC/18/1069/FUL | 8 Quay Street Halesworth - The Committee had no objections to this application.

DC/22/3501/FUL Single storey side extension | 27 Dakings Drift Halesworth - The Committee had no objections to this application.

DC/22/3809/FUL Proposed Cafe extension to the side of the existing store and to connect to the existing cafe area. | The Co-Operative Saxons Way - The Committee had no objections to this application.

DC/21/0027/FUL Halesworth Campus (Former Halesworth Middle School Site) Norwich Road – proposal for 10 extra beds in the care home – Cllr Dutton had written a response which includes the loss of lounge space for residents and that the extra residents will place more strain on already stretched services. The Committee also decided to add the service systems, the decoupling of the applications and the publicity of Halesworth planning applications in the Beccles and Bungay Journal and Lowestoft Journal.

6. Thoroughfare Working Group – Suffolk County Council has agreed to change the sign on Bridge Street so that parking can be enforced along that section of Bridge and Thoroughfare. They have also agreed to change the road signs throughout the town to clarify parking and deliveries and remove references to the hospital.
The Chair of the working group will present this progress to the Council.
7. Signage Working Group – the group has received a report from the consultant employed.

8. Correspondence – none received

9. News Items: None.
